Kim has been an amazing resource!

We started this adoption journey not knowing what to do and where to go. She laid everything out step by step. We started our home study in May and were active with Kim by June 4th. That same day our profile was shown, we were matched by the 7th. We now have a beautiful baby girl in our arms. Not only did she help match us with a wonderful agency, she was with us through the wait, when we were at the hospital and even now when we are home. She treats you like family and I truly hope we can work with her again.

We are thankful for Cradled in Grace and highly recommend Kim to anyone who feels called to adopt!

Our adoption journey started 5 years ago and unfortunately ended (or, was put on hold!) about a year later with no baby and an agency that closed down unexpectedly and left us with nothing. We waited and prayed and explored every avenue for adoption after that, but knew we were supposed to go with Kim after meeting with her last summer. She was very helpful and the process of updating our home study and profile book was seamless, thanks to her excellent referrals. Throughout the process she was more than just a consultant - she was a counselor and a friend and a prayer warrior! Once everything was in place, we matched quickly and now have a precious baby that we know was supposed to be a part of our family all along!

Client Testimonials

We matched in less than 2 weeks after signing with Kim!

My husband and I knew from the first conversation with Kim that we wanted her to help us on our adoption journey. Kim is so knowledgeable and readily available to answer all questions. She held our hand through the whole process and was helpful and encouraging. I have no doubt she prayed over every detail of our match and genuinely cares for every family she helps. We have never been so incredibly happy as we are now with our sweet little boy.

Kim was excellent to work with and helped guide us through our adoption.

We actually only started working with Kim a week before she was able to assist us in a match! We had been working with another agency for over 2 years with a failed match. Kim was very knowledgeable and honest with us on our circumstance that had challenges in our situation. We now have a little boy that we were praying for and we can't thank Kim enough for all her help. We really wish we would have found Cradled in Grace sooner in our journey. I would definitely recommend Kim to other people in this journey.

Client Testimonials

Adopting through Cradled in Grace was much faster than expected!

Kim was wonderful to work with. What we liked the most about her is that she keeps her clientele list short, which made us feel like we were getting more specialized attention. She kept her word and stayed in constant contact with us whenever a situation arose. Once matched, she made it clear that she was available to us anytime with questions or concerns. We never once felt alone. She checked in with us during ICPC and sent encouraging messages and scriptures to help us through the long wait time away from our family. We would definitely recommend her services, and are hoping we can adopt through her again ourselves.

Kim walked every step of the way with us.

Kim is so personal and attentive throughout the whole process! We first got connected with Cradled in Grace right around the time our home study was being finished. Kim encouraged us when we were having hard days, gave us sound wisdom, and cheered for us along the way. While we were waiting, it felt like forever, but it is not lost on us that our wait was so short because of her great work and the amazing relationship she has with so many different adoption agencies. We are so thankful for her, her amazing reputation, and her wisdom and guidance. If you are thinking about adopting or have been in the process and are discouraged, talking with Kim at Cradled in Grace should definitely be your next step!
